

Lo, How a Rose

German, 15th Century
Tr. Unknown

Anonymous, 16th Century
Har. by Michael Praetorius, 1609

Audantino

pp

p 1. Lo, how a Rose up-spring - ing On ten - der root mp 2. This Rose then of my sto - ry I - sa - iah did p 3. The Rose - bud small and ten - der Gives fra-grance ev'

pp

— has grown: mf A Rose by proph-et's sing - ing To — pro-claim. f What God or - dain'd in glo - ry By — ry day. mf And by It's bril - liant splen - dor Makes

pp

all the world — made known. pp The Rose 'midst' win-ter's cold, — bless-ed Ma - ry came. mf The Child the Vir - gin bore, — dark-ness pass — a - way. mf True God, true Man, we pray, — p A lone - ly blos - som bear - ing, In form - er days — fore - told.

f The world's sal - va - tion bring - ing Through Him - for ev - er - more.
f Help us in ev' - ry sor - row, And guard us on — our way.

pp rit.