Adams Street Center
Steffan, seneschal
28 Thescorreans present

1. Pax...

...is this weekend!

Alison said she please needs folks to help set up sheet walls and pavilions on Friday. She also needs help on Saturday putting up more pavilions, plus grounds cleanup and takedown on Sunday. In addition, she needs Tollner volunteers.

Bryn will need help with lunch - setting things up, running the grill, selling the food, and cleaning things up.

Where are the barony list ropes, she asked? In Steffan's basement, but we don't have any poles.

2. Officer Reports

Exchequer: We have $1,777.36 in checking and $1,055.65 in savings, Alina reported. We have a surplus of $577 as of the mid-year report, but recent advances are going to eat all of that surplus up.

I need a deputy, Alina reminded. Since she doesn't have a deputy at this point, she asked Katja to be the third signatory on the barony bank accounts. (I agreed.)

Chronicler: We have 38 Fewmet subscriptions, Eldjarn noted. The Domesday data is all updated, and Steffan kindly agreed to print it after Pennsic. Eldjarn will have his camera at Pax if anyone wants their photo taken for the book.

My term is up in January, he added, so if anyone wants my job come talk to me.

Rapier: I renewed my marshal's warrant, Yasmina announced. We have two new authorized fencers: Cedric and Khalek. We have new tips, blades, and jackets (thanks very much!), and she needs to ask for money in the fall to replace the loaner gorget. Honnorica pointed out that Yasmina came in third to two fencing Dons at the Pearl Tourney at the recent Bog Three-Day event!

Baroness: Thescorre is slated to guard the AE Royal gate at Pennsic on Thursday. We currently have five two-person shifts, Peregrine said, but we can break them up into shorter ones if desired.

Baronial Court is 6:30 p.m. on Monday of War Week, with a potluck before or after.

Could we also have a potluck at Pax?

Archery: A fairly hysterical and somewhat bawdy poem, read by Peregrine in Cedric's absence... "It's hot, too damn hot."

A&S: Everyone is prepping for Pennsic with cooking, sewing, scrolls, according to Dubheasa. She's very much looking forward to the Threadworkers' meeting at Pennsic. (Shopping!)

P.S. She steps down at Pax and Kadlin takes over the job.

P.P.S. if anyone has finished their youth marshal favors, please give them to Dubheasa.

Chatelaine: Want to do a demo table at Astronomicon in November at the Clarion Riverside?

Thrown Weapons: Speaking for Timothy (acting marshal), Alison note that we had a lot of people attend the first Thursday night practice. (The second was rained out.) There will not be a practice this weekend.

Chirurgion: All is going well, Phillippe said, and he's sending in Mick's paperwork to become an apprentice chi. He showed off the new EMT kit so that "you know how your money was spent."

He'll be onsite at Pax 24/7, if anyone needs chi help.
Mick should be able to be his backup by Coronation.

Herald: I can cry the camp at Pax, Matilda offered. My job is up in January, she reminded, and if anyone wants my job and wants a dry-run in Court, come see me before 2 p.m. at Pax.

Web: Sorcha thanked Colette (Khazi) for a great list of scribal links for the barony webpage, as well as Katja for the list of cooks guild spoons and guild information. She and Donal have also added a navigation bar to each page, as well as a site search function with Google.

The ORF member list is as up to date as I know, she added. Can folks please check it to see if anyone is missing?

They got through almost all of the first year of Fewmet, scanning the pages to text and PDF for archiving. However, our scanner "got sick," so the archiving project is on hold for now. Finally, we have three new members of the barony Yahoo group, and one unsubscription due to an email change.

MOL: Bronwyn can't be at Pax on Friday afternoon.

Also, she did not receive an MOL box so she needs to start a new one. Honnorica offered to talk after the meeting about what forms would be necessary in the box.

Youth Marshal: The youth fighters participated in a demo in Letchworth Park two weeks ago, Marighread said. The youth fighter tourney will be at Pax. Oh, and the Pennsic tabards are 80% done!

Dance: Carlo urged folks to attend "Co-ed nekkid"

Middle Eastern drumming & dance tomorrow night... we have new drummers!

He also offered to teach juggling at Pax.

3. New Officer bid

Alison handed in Timothy's bid to become the official thrown weapons marshal. "He wants to be the marshal, he can be it," Steffan announced. No vote taken.
